MIKE'S-SPACE

Sorry, but I have to gush a little bit more about VBS. The Jerusalem Marketplace is a wonderful vehicle for exposing our children to the gospel and to the Jewish culture from which it sprang. I want to thank Mona Bell and Carol Hornback again for all their hard work in organizing this great school. All aspects of the school were excellent from the music to the class times, in crafts and recreation, right down to school security. Finally, I want to thank the great number of our fellow church members who gave of their time for VBS. It's wonderful serving at a church where there is such a great love for children.

I'm sure by now that you've heard about Dave Levee our Youth and Recreation Minister leaving. More about Dave later, but this week please be in prayer for our youth and Dave as they have a last time of ministry and fellowship together at Centrifuge Camp. And thanks to those adults going as youth counselors this week.

Yours in Christ,
Bro. Mike

A Note from Greg

What a blessing the Father's Day video was to me. Thanks for submitting your pictures and a very special thanks to Deb Ramey for putting the video together.

I also want to thank the quartet for singing last Sunday. Gauging by the response immediately follow the performance and by the comments after the service, you guys may need to plan on bringing another song in the not-too-distant future. Thanks guys!

Once again a reminder that the Handbell Choir will be rehearsing next Tuesday, June 24th. We are planning to perform a patriotic piece on June 29th and we need every available ringer. If you are unable to be at this rehearsal, please call to that if we have large gaps we can reschedule.

The Orchestra is planning to perform a special piece on July 6th. Let me encourage each who are a part of our orchestra that we need each of you to be at our corporate best. Hope to see you Sunday!

VBS YARD SIGNS. Be sure to turn in the metal frames so that they can be reused. Thanks!

Music Committee Meeting

There will be a Music Committee meeting for this Sunday at 5:00pm to discuss some future plans and some needs in the Music Ministry. If you can't attend, please call.

Greg

Children's News

VBS has come and gone. I pray that the lessons of the week will have a lasting impact on the lives of everyone involved. As with most Americans, I tend to pack everything possible in my schedule and oftentimes am planning another event well before the present one is over. I think I probably miss a blessing or two when I don't pay enough attention to the here and now. So, before we move away from VBS and on to the next event on the calendar, I want to take a moment and reflect. Mona will fill you guys in on the details next Sunday, in terms of attendance and missions offering. I want to focus on the big picture. Everywhere the children went in the building, they encountered someone willing to talk to them about Jesus. How awesome is that? The children learned that the Jewish people included God in every aspect of their lives. As leaders, we were able to take the next logical step and teach the kids that they should include Jesus in everything they do. Not only did the children study the Bible, they also saw the lessons come to life in drama and the activities in the shops. The material was reinforced in such a way as to encourage the children to remember the details. I believe we set a foundation for many years to come.

As always, I'm humbled by the willingness and Christ-like spirit the volunteers of our church display when working with our children. Countless hours went into the planning and execution of such a huge endeavor. I know that God blessed your efforts and that you do not expect anything else in return; however, I want you to know that I am thankful for all you do for our kids.

Now, on to the next major event in the lives of our children. Twenty-one children and seven adult chaperones will attend Centri-Kid camp at Georgetown College June 30 through July 4. Please be in prayer that God will continue to work in their lives. If you want, you may write letters of encouragement to them at the address below. Just include the person's name and our church name with the address. Be sure to send it the week before we leave, because it takes some time to process the mail at Georgetown. I've included a list of those attending so that you may personalize your notes. We also have had one cancellation, so if you know of a child who would want to attend camp, please let me know.
