ELECTRICITY. Before the recent ice storm, when was the last time you actually thought about it? It's just one of those things we take for granted, at least until we lose it. Then we quickly realize that we're pretty much helpless without it.

We treat God like that sometimes. No, most of the time, I think. We really don't think about Him most of the time. We take Him for granted like we do electricity. We don't turn to him until we've pretty much exhausted all other possibilities, then as a last resort, we come to him. Fortunately God is more reliable than the power companies. He is always there for us. The Bible tells us that nothing can separate us from His love, not even an ice storm.

There is one thing, however, that can separate me from all that God wants for me. That one thing is me. I can separate myself from God by choosing to live my day-to-day life as if He didn't exist. Sort of like I do with the power companies. Don't take God for granted. Take the advice of Solomon: "in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight."

Valentino's – February 15
Everyone is invited to join us after the morning service on Sunday for a Valentine's themed lunch prepared and served by our youth and youth workers. There is no charge for the meal, but donations will be accepted for missions.

Jr. High Believe – Feb. 20-21
Middle school students can still sign up for Jr. High Believe through this Sunday. Believe is the premiere Jr. High Christian event in the U.S. This year's conference will be held in the Cincinnati area on February 20-21. See me for more details.

SS Teachers Meeting Sunday
9:00-9:30 in CFC

I asked for snow and I got snow. Unfortunately it came with a bunch of ice as well. Had I known it would have caused as much damage as it did I wouldn't have asked for it. Whatever the case, the inclement weather caused us to push back the SS teachers meeting to this Sunday, February 15, 2009 from 9:00-9:30 in the CFC. Once again this is open to all SS teachers of all ages.

I desire to be able to work closely with all of those who are involved in SS. There will be many opportunities for us to grow together and reach out to those who need Christ. I look forward to meeting with all of you as we begin this journey together.

Children

Sunday Evening Programming
February 15, 2009

Attention all parents of children K-5. Beginning this Sunday evening, February 15, we are going to meet in the Children's department upstairs. This particular time is going to be led by myself and Megan. We want to be able to provide the opportunity for parents to come to the evening service and gain some of the valuable teaching that Brother Mike offers. Please let us teach your children as you soak up the Word in a more relaxed fashion.

Centri-Kid camp sign-ups are still available in the children's department. A $50 deposit is due once the camper is signed up. Discounts are available. Have a blessed day.

~Pastor Adam Townsend

Of course I know that not all of you are out from under the ice storm yet. Some of you are still operating by generator or staying with family or friends. I hope you get to come home soon. I'm hoping to see even more of you on Valentine's Day weekend coming up. At the morning service we'll get to witness the baptism of our two newest members, Mike Key and Madison Royalty. Also, I've asked all of you to send a personal valentine to a friend and bring them to church with you. Our goal is to have 250 in Sunday School and 400 in worship. Throughout this year on special Sundays, we'll be giving you opportunities to reach out to those who are lost and unchurched, in other words to be involved in the work of evangelism. Our next Special emphasis will be at the end of March to give us a chance to celebrate the Upward Basketball program. This coming Sunday I look forward to worshipping with all of our fellow members and guests. One more thing, you'll read in another part of the Link today that we have elected our Music Search Committee. Note the names of the people on this committee and begin praying for them as they search for our new Minister of Music.
