It'll be a busy weekend. We're hosting the Fifth Quarter after the big homecoming football game Friday night. I'll have a part in some of the festivities and services. Then Sunday morning at 9 A.M., we'll have our annual community service on the square with former U.S. representative Ron Lewis speaking. After that we're having a brunch for our membership here in the CFC and I'll give a devotional. I hope to see you around on the weekend. But it's also the beginning of Fall Break at school. So some of you may be taking a trip and you won't be around at all. We're just so busy, aren't we? I hope in the midst of all this activity that you find some meaningful and enjoyable things to do. I hope you don't just try to do all of them and not really enjoy any of them. Several articles I've read recently speak about us reaching an activity and information overload. We multi-task, but we may not end up doing any one task well. We're able to communicate at light speed these days, but our spirits aren't able to run that fast. Our computer processor may be able to handle all this activity, but our personal processor can't. Do you have a way of slowing things down and looking at the big picture of your life. Jesus said, "What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, but loses his soul?" Since we are involved in so much, we need to schedule some meditation and planning time into our days. At first this may seem like just another thing to add to an already busy schedule. But if you'll practice having some quiet meditative time every day, I think you'll find life becoming simpler even in the midst of a very tight schedule. Just get up a half an hour earlier each day and have 15 mins. of prayer and 15 mins. of planning. See if it doesn't help. Just a Thought, Bro.  Please consider signing up to cover an area in and around Hodgenville for prayer walking this fall. You will find the area map and a sign up sheet on a table in the front foyer.

Fifth Quarter
 Don't forget about the Fifth Quarter here at FBC on Friday. We're expecting 200-300 people. Here's what to expect (schedule is approximate):

- 10:00 Hamburgers, hot dogs, cookies and drinks in the CFC.
- 10:40 Let's Make a Deal or No Deal Fear Factor in the Auditorium
- 11:10 Worship led by the South Fork student praise team
- 11:35 Message by Dave Levee
- 12:00 Dismissal

- To make this happen we need:
- 40 people to bake 2 dozen cookies and deliver them to the CFC by 7pm on Friday.
 - 50 adults to attend the Fifth Quarter to serve food and provide crowd control.
 - 6-8 adults to grill hamburgers and hot dogs, starting around 9:00pm.

Thanks to those who signed up for these positions on Sunday. We still need more people to provide cookies and more adults to attend the Fifth Quarter. So please help us out! We want this to be a great event.

Teachers. Mark your calendars now.

Children
Oct. 3—Lincoln Days Parade—1:00pm
No TeamKID—October 7th
Hayride—October 27—4:30-7:00

This is a last call for all families who would like to participate in the Lincoln Days Parade Children's Ministries float. All you have to do is let me know in advance that you want to be a part of the float so that I can turn your name in with everyone else's. We will meet at the Creek Front Park Flag Pole @ 1:00pm to start and parents can pick up the children in front of Police Headquarters immediately following the parade. See you there.

Next week is Fall Break. As a result, FBCH will not have TeamKID on Oct. 7th. We will resume our normal schedule on Oct. 14th. Enjoy the week off.

Preschool Volunteers
 If we hope to reach out to the young adults in our community and grow as a church it will require us to have children's ministry second to none. To have such a ministry requires a church wide effort and volunteers... lots of volunteers. If you do not currently volunteer with our preschool I encourage you to do so. And if I may be so bold as to say it...I EXPECT many of you to be involved in some way. Our ministries depend on your efforts. Get involved.
